

Dear brothers and sisters in the Presbyterian family, at the opening worship of the Special General Assembly (SGA) on Wednesday 18 February, I pointed those present to the message and meaning of Psalm 46. This is a psalm the people of God have often turned to in times of trouble and what I pointed out is that our Presbyterian Church in Ireland is caught in a storm and that storm continues. However, the great reassurance of Psalm 46 is that we are not forsaken, for the Lord assures us that he is sovereign and comes to His people in their storms. Our response to this knowledge is to make Him our refuge and to be still and know that He is God.

Following the SGA, I wanted to write to inform you of the steps we have taken in light of the criminal investigation by the Police Service of Northern Ireland and the statutory inquiry set up by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland. As noted at the Special Assembly, the PSNI has requested that I act as the main liaison person with the investigation team, assisted by the Deputy Clerk Revd Peter Gamble. As this is a role that no previous moderator has ever been asked to fulfil, the General Council has set up a special advisory task group to assist me in this work.

Updates were presented on the progress of expanding our new safeguarding department and the production of new policies and procedures. Further reports will be brought to June's General Assembly in relation to the work of the task groups, which have been set up to consider PCI's use of compromise agreements; issues of culture, governance and integrity; and an assessment of the need for a survivor redress scheme.

The two substantive issues discussed and agreed at the SGA concerned this year's annual meeting of the General Assembly in June and a new senior leadership structure. Firstly, it was agreed to extend the General Assembly from three days to four, to enable greater scrutiny, debate, worship and fellowship, with the General Assembly now planned to take place, DV, from 9 to 12 June.

The second substantive issue was a discussion on the proposed new structure for the senior leadership team in Assembly Buildings. Members of Assembly agreed to split the current role of the Clerk of the General Assembly and General Secretary, creating a new role for the Clerk of the General Assembly, with a new post being created - Director of Operations. These two posts, along with the Deputy Clerk, who also has a slightly revised role, will now form the senior leadership team.

Details of the discussions that took place and the decisions that were taken, can be found in The Review, which is available on the PCI website, or by following this link: https://issuu.com/presbyterianireland/docs/the_special_assembly_review_2026 You can also watch the worship service and the business sessions - these too can be found on the PCI website here: www.presbyterianireland.org/specialga26

Please continue to pray for our denomination as we navigate these difficult times. Please pray for me, and others who are seeking to give leadership and direction, and for all our staff centrally who are working hard to make things better. Also, we should never forget that at the centre of this storm are those that we have let down, those who have been harmed, or put at risk of harm, by our failures. We continue to lament our failures towards them and their families.

As we go forward, let me close by concluding with the opening words of Psalm 46, which act as a constant reminder to us all to trust the Lord in this difficult time - "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble."

Yours in Christ,

Rt Revd Dr Richard Murray
Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland

Knowing Jesus, making Jesus known

Weekly Bulletin
Sunday 15 March 2026

"Remember your mercy, O LORD, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old." Psalm 25:6

We warmly welcome you to worship this morning on this first day of another week, whether you are part of our church family, here in First Cookstown, or just visiting with us.

We hope that as we worship together we will encounter God and experience the hope and assurance of the Gospel and the relevance of God's word in our world today.

If you're new to First Cookstown, we do hope you have been made welcome at the door and someone helped you get your bearings. Maybe you are new to the area and you are looking for a local church where you can feel at home.

Q9. What is the work of creation?

A. The work of creation is God's making all things of nothing, by the word of his power, in the space of six days, and all very good.

Messy Church

Once again, we hope to hold Messy Church on Good Friday afternoon (3rd April). This is always a great afternoon as we share the Easter story with the children who come along. If you would be able to help, please speak to Michael if you have not already done so.

Summer Mission Teams

Could those heading off on summer mission teams please let Michael know the details, where you are going, who are you going with and when, thank you.

REACH

The REACH team, made up of volunteers from the local churches, have started a night-time street outreach ministry. If you would be interested in being involved, or would like some more information please speak to Michael.

Parking

Work continues on the old manse. This means that the back yard is no longer available for additional parking.

Football

A group from the local churches meet each Friday evening at MUSA to play football. If you would be interested, contact Michael for more information.

Cookstown High School

Everyone is invited to a service of celebration for 220 years of Cookstown High School, which will be held in Molesworth Presbyterian Church on Sunday 22nd March at 3:30pm. This will provide an opportunity to reflect on its long history, give thanks for the generations of pupils and staff who are part of its story and look forward with hope to the future.

Old Manse Update

The building contractor has taken down most of the scaffolding, except at the front where it is still needed for leadwork to finish off at the bay roofs. Work has been ongoing internally with the insulating of the attics and re-plastering to some of the rooms. The heating system has been turned back on to help with the drying, which will take some time due to the thick solid walls.

Presbytery Mission in Ireland Evening

The Presbytery Mission in Ireland Evening will be held in Molesworth Presbyterian Church on Sunday 29th March at 6:30pm. The speakers will be Revd Henry Hanna (rural chaplain) and Nigel Craig will also be sharing about the work of chaplaincy in Queen's University and Union Theological College, Belfast.

Prayer Requests

If anyone has any requests for prayer, please contact Lynne Dripps on 07901 691093.

Scout Leaders required (urgently)

As you may be aware, the Scout Section of 1st Cookstown Scout Group (11-14year olds) has not been able to run for the past 2 years as we haven't been able to find leaders. This situation gives us great concern. If there is anyone who would feel able to undertake the role with 1/2 others please contact Margaret Hamilton (07880 975337) or Colin Rea (07761 229052) for details.
